Next walk

Lake Chittering, 11th December, 5.00pm

Hi Birders

Many thanks to Cathy and Mark for providing a pleasant place for morning tea and their lovely bush garden to look at.

We are welcome to attend our Christmas birding expedition at the Chittering Lake, so it will be the usual deal. Bring along your goodies to share and seats. Sue and I will bring the gear. I would also ask if any of you would like to contribute to Jim's Christmas hamper, please bring it with you.

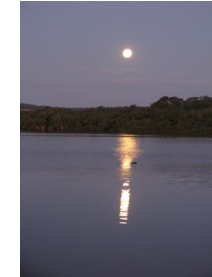

It was great to spot a Rainbow Bee-eater at Ghost Gum Reserve, first one this year. Few Carnaby's around so guessing we have them nesting in the area and some noisy Red-tailed Black cockies.

I thought that a glance through times past may be fun. Past photos taken at Lake Chittering.

Kind regards, Rosanna and Sue.

2010. Honest! It was this big.

2011 Stairway to heaven.

2012 Old friends.
