Mooliabeenie Airstrip, Mooliabeenie Road.

Hello Birders

A lovely sunny day for us to check out a reserve we have not visited before. I like to call it the Firehouse Reserve because it is opposite the Fire Station but part of the Marbling Brook runs through the reserve so it is the Marbling Reserve. A lovely bush block of Jarrah woodland grading into Wandoo woodland. The only thing wrong is that we didn't record many birds there but we all enjoyed the day and morning tea (photo left).

The spotted pardalote was the most unusual bird seen and heard there, although we have not seen many raptors of late so spotting the Nankeen Kestrel was a bit of excitement. The one noticeable thing was the large Jarrah tree in the corner of the neighbouring paddock (photo right). Whether it is Dieback, the result of a long hot summer or the effect of horses compacting the soil. We will need to investigate further.

We haven't been to the Mooliabeenie Airstrip for some years so hope we see something of interest.

See you at the airstrip.

Regards Rosanna and Sue
