Hello Fellow Birders

A morning at Ghost Gum Reserve and we spotted the first wedge-tailed eagle that we have recorded this year. No siting of the western spinebill we usually see at this reserve.

It has been cool morning the past few months and the number of sitings have been quite low. Although there were Carnaby's cockatoos present so it may be worth a visit later in the year to see if any of the artificial nesting tubes are being used.

Saturday is our annual breakfast at Judith's place in the Valley, so don't forget to bring along your favourite contribution.

Hope we see you there.

Kind regards, Rosanna and Sue

Photo right..

Two Noisy Miners I met at the bus station in Brisbane. While I was waiting for a bus to Toowoomba early in July.

Finished my breakfast and the two very quiet (despite their name) birds decided to lick the jam dish clean, entirely oblivious to me sitting there. It was freezing cold as well.

At least these are native species, most others I saw over the 8 days there where introduced species.
